

Fringe Festival @ Central Library

Wednesday, September 19, 6pm-8pm/Harold Hacker Hall "Something's afoot..." A Literary Mystery (FREE)

Has an act of theft and plagiarism gone unchecked, allowing a culprit to make millions? We need your help to crack the case. Put your sleuthing skills to the test: interview witnesses and examine clues!

Advanced registration required. Visit bit.ly/2LGBef8 to register.

Friday, September 21, 9pm-midnight

Ticketed productions (listed) + FREE Storychick Rochester storybooth, music, large scale games; cash bar

Good Joke/Bad Joke Bingo ($10)

9pm, 10pm, 11pm/Rundel Arts Room
Random bingo numbers determine which joke or story Shawn Wickens tells.

Echoes of Africa ($10)

9pm, 10:30pm/
Kate Gleason Auditorium
Traditional and contemporary dance and drum with Sankofa African Dance and Drum Ensemble.

'Spooky Stories in the Stacks' ($10)

9:30pm, 10:30pm/Meet in Rundel Lobby
True ghost stories in the secret stacks of the Rundel Memorial Building.

To Purchase Tickets:

Online: rochesterfringe.com (no extra fees)

Phone: (585) 957-9837 (additional fees apply)

Box Office: One Fringe Place (Main & Gibbs)

Visit rochesterfringe.com for Phone and Box Office hours prior to and during Fringe.

In person: Lobby of Rundel Memorial Building one hour before each show (if still available)

Central Library of Rochester & Monroe County
Monroe County Library System

RocCityLibrary.org

Friends & Foundation of the Rochester Public Library

ffrpl.org

Central Library of Rochester & Monroe County • 115 South Ave., Downtown Rochester

The Central Library is accessible to people with disabilities. To request specific accommodations, call 585-428-8304 ten days prior to the program.

Season's Readings Book Sale

at The Library Store of Central Library

Thursday, November 29th through Saturday, December 8th.

Thousands of new and used books. Incredible deals for holiday giving!

All sales benefit the Rochester Public Library.

Friends & Foundation of the Rochester Public Library

Please consider a planned gift through FFRPL. Planned giving is any deferred gift intended to benefit the future of the Rochester Public Library. Bequests, life insurance, IRAs, trusts and annuities all make a lasting difference, and giving through FFRPL is the best way to ensure that your gift will support the Library now and into the future. Please contact Rebecca Fuss for more information: rebecca.fuss@libraryweb.org or 585.428.8323.

Central Library of Rochester & Monroe County
Monroe County Library System

Friends & Foundation of the Rochester Public Library

Central Library of Rochester & Monroe County
115 South Ave., Downtown Rochester
ffrpl.org

Presented by

Friends & Foundation of the Rochester Public Library

FALL Programs 2018

featuring

Books Sandwiched In

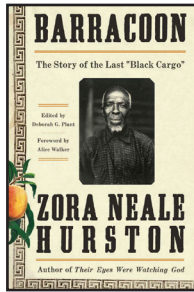

CENTRAL LIBRARY OF ROCHESTER & MONROE COUNTY

115 SOUTH AVENUE • ROCHESTER, NY

585.428.8350

www.ffrpl.org

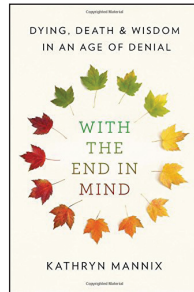

September 18

Barracoon

by Zora Neale Hurston
The harrowing true story of one of the last-known survivors of the Atlantic slave trade, who was abducted from Africa on the last 'Black Cargo' ship to arrive in the U.S.

Reviewer: Curtis Rivers
Owner of the independent African American store Mood Makers Books in Village Gate

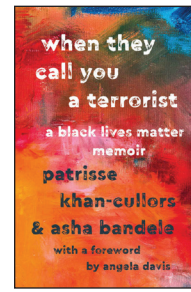

October 2

With the End in Mind: Dying, Death & Wisdom in an Age of Denial

by Kathryn Mannix
Vivid stories from the author's 30 years of experience in palliative care, encouraging readers to address the 'quality vs. quantity dilemma' for themselves.

Reviewer: Dr. Chin-lin Ching
Director of Palliative Care, Highland Hospital

October 23

When They Call You a Terrorist: A Black Lives Matter Memoir

by Patrisse Khan-Cullors and Asha Bandele
The NYT bestseller described by Library Journal as "... a searing, timely look into a contemporary movement from one of its crucial leading voices."

Reviewer: Alexis Clark
Teen Empowerment Youth Organizer from the Center for Teen Empowerment

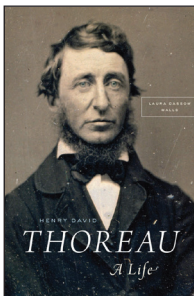

November 6

Why Baseball Matters

by Susan Jacoby
A passionate and careful analysis into why our 'national pastime' is losing young fans, including the non-timed structure of the game in an age of digital distraction.

Reviewer: Patti Singer
Democrat and Chronicle reporter who covered the Rochester Red Wings for many years

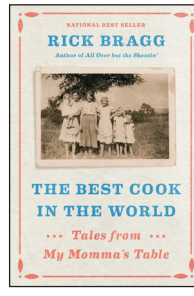

September 25

Henry David Thoreau: A Life

by Laura Dassow Walls
"Walls's Thoreau is ... a person who, in many ways, is a 21st-century liberal's idea of our best self: pro-environmental, antiracist, anti-imperialist, feminist, reformist, spiritual but not religious." (The Nation)

Reviewer: Reverend Dr. Richard (Dick) S. Gilbert
Former leader of the First Unitarian Church

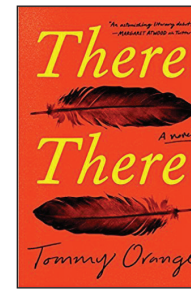

October 9

The Best Cook in the World: Tales from My Momma's Table

by Rick Bragg
"A beautifully written memoir... For readers who crave soul with their recipes this is a fitting tribute to foodways that are fast escaping." – Library Journal (starred review)

Reviewer: Chef Jerry Manley
Former owner of Flour City Diner in Brighton and the Grill on East.

October 30

There There

by Tommy Orange
A multigenerational novel about violence and recovery, identity, and the beauty and despair woven into the history of a nation and its people, set during the Big Oakland Powwow.

Reviewer: Michael Galban
(Mono Lake Paiute/Washoe)
Curator, Historian and Interpretive Programs Assistant, Seneca Art & Culture Center at Ganondagan State Historic Site

November 13

The Space Barons: Elon Musk, Jeff Bezos and the Quest to Colonize the Cosmos

by Christian Davenport
An engrossing true story of two billionaire rivals and their vision of space as the next entrepreneurial frontier to be conquered.

Reviewer: Dr. Jen Connelly
Lecturer, School of Physics and Astronomy, Rochester Institute of Technology, and her student Amber Dubill

Note: no BSI review October 16

For more information on these books go to: www.BSI.ffrpl.org

Would you like to be added to our e-mail newsletter? Visit www.ffrpl.org and click on 'Join Our Mailing List'

Race, Rhetoric and Resistance: The Legacy of Frederick Douglass
FFRPL and the Local History & Genealogy Division will host a series of speakers on Frederick Douglass. For details, go to the events calendar at RocCityLibrary.org

PRESENTING the 9th ANNUAL Greater ROCHESTER Teen Read October 15-19, 2018

Meet Laurie Halse Anderson, author of Speak and The Seeds Of America trilogy.
Sponsored, in part, by FFRPL. For more information, visit the calendar on www.roccitylibrary.org

Art of the BOOK
Artist Books and Altered Books
8TH ANNUAL JURIED INTERNATIONAL EXHIBIT
ON VIEW NOVEMBER 7, 2018 – JANUARY 9, 2019
Opening Reception: November 7, 6pm
Anthony Mascioli Gallery, Central Library
RocCityLibrary.org/artofthebook

ROC THE DAY
ROC the Day 2018 on the National Day of Giving!
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27
Please help support FFRPL during this 24-hour online fundraising event. Make a secure donation to FFRPL at www.ROCtheDay.org